I have read and agree to the conditions of membership as defined on the web page:
<http://propaneclub.com/details.html#Conditions>.

I further understand my relationship will be with the propane provider, and that Ray Williams and the Propane Club do nothing but negotiate a price for that propane. I fully indemnify Ray Williams and the Propane Club and acknowledge they have no liability concerning my business relationship with the provider selected. If any liability is determined by any outside source, the maximum liability will be limited to the amount of membership dues paid for that year.

I authorize the propane provider to allow Ray Williams access to our records and to speak on our behalf.
